A. General. In cooperation with the Rutgers-Newark Career Development Center, the English Department offers academic credit for approved internships. Internships offer undergraduate students the opportunity to gain pre-professional experience in publishing, public relations and media related firms. Credit for approved internships will be granted through the courses numbered 350:458 and 459.

B. Academic Credit. Three hours academic credit may be earned for the internship experience. Three credits of internship can be counted toward the English major as an elective.

C. Eligibility. Juniors or Seniors (64+ credit hours), with a minimum grade point average of 3.0, are eligible to apply for internship credit.

D. Application Procedures. Prospective student interns and the Internship Sponsor must complete and sign an Internship Contract.

After the Internship Contract is completed and signed by both the student and internship sponsor, the contract must be approved by the Career Development Center (CDC).

Upon approval of the contract by the CDC, submit the Contract to the Chair of the English Department for final approval in order to be permitted to register for the English course numbered 350:458 or 459.

Completed Contracts must be submitted for the Chair’s final approval no later than Friday of the first week of classes for the Fall and Spring semesters. Applications for Summer internships must be submitted before classes begin for the term in which the student will enroll for internship credit.

E. Work Plan. Within two weeks after beginning an internship, students must submit a work plan to the Professor. The plan should describe specific tasks the intern will be performing throughout the semester. The work plan must be approved before academic credit can be awarded.
F. Internship Assessment. The quality of internships – both the degree of professional experience gained by students and the quality of work they perform – will be assessed at the mid-point and the end of each semester. Interns will complete rating forms that document their experience (Midterm and Final Internship Rating). Employer supervisors will complete forms that rate intern performance (Midterm and Final Supervisor Evaluation).

These forms serve two purposes. First, supervisor ratings of interns are considered in deciding whether intern performance warrants a satisfactory grade. Second, intern ratings will guide decisions whether to approve future internship applications with the sponsoring agency.

Interns must submit a journal and an essay as specified in the internship contract before the end of the semester in which they are enrolled. At the discretion of the Undergraduate Program Director, an earlier date may be specified. Failure to submit Internship Ratings, Supervisor Evaluations, or specific written products when due will be cause for receiving an “F” for the course.

G. Restrictions. Internships are intended to integrate pre-professional and academic experience. Because of this, credit may not be awarded retrospectively. That is, students may not apply for internship credit for work performed at some previous time. For example, a student may not request credit during the Fall semester for an internship completed over the previous summer.

Similarly, students may not receive internship credit for normal duties performed through pre-existing employment.

A maximum of three hours credit may be earned.

H. Internship Planning. The Career Development Center offers numerous internships for English majors in diverse settings including publishing, public relations and media related firms. Please visit the Career Development Center and make an appointment to discuss obtaining internships.
